CBOT-mieliepryse het Woensdag laer gesluit namate die onlangse styging 'n blaaskans geneem het. Handelaars begin juis fokus op die Amerikaanse oes wat nou nader aan die stroopseisoen beweeg, terwyl die mark moontlik ook onder druk gekom het deur laat tegniese verkope in die sessie. Die mark se vooruitsigte bly egter positief, met onsekerheid oor Amerikaanse opbrengste wat steeds ondersteuning aan mieliepryse bied al het 'n klein daling in prys gister voorgeval.

CBOT corn prices closed lower on Wednesday as the recent rally took a pause. Traders are beginning to focus more closely on the U.S. crop, which is now moving closer to the harvest season, while the market may also have come under pressure from late-session technical selling. The market outlook, however, remains positive, with uncertainty around U.S. yields still providing support to corn prices, despite the small decline in prices yesterday.

White and Yellow Maize Deliveries

Maize Exports and Intentions

CBOT-sojaboonpryse het Woensdag laer gesluit nadat die mark onlangse hoogtepunte bereik het. Handelaars het wins geneem ná die sterk styging in pryse, terwyl die mark ook begin fokus op die nuwe Amerikaanse oes. Die daling was egter beperk deur die goeie vraag, met private uitvoerders wat ’n verdere 7,4 miljoen bushels sojabone aan China verkoop het vir lewering gedurende die 2026/27-bemarkingsjaar.

CBOT soybean prices closed lower on Wednesday after the market reached recent highs. Traders took profits following the strong rise in prices, while the market also began to focus on the new U.S. crop. The decline was, however, limited by strong demand, with private exporters selling a further 7.4 million bushels of soybeans to China for delivery during the 2026/27 marketing year.

CBOT KC HRW-koringpryse het Woensdag laer gesluit moontlik omdat handelaars wins geneem het ná die sterk styging in koringpryse, terwyl die mark ook meer aandag begin gee aan die beskikbaarheid van koring namate die Noordelike Halfrond se oes vorder. Die mark bly egter ondersteun deur onsekerheid rondom Swartsee-uitvoere, wat beteken dat Woensdag se daling eerder soos 'n korttermyn korreksie lyk as 'n verandering in die breër markvooruitsigte.

CBOT KC HRW wheat prices closed lower on Wednesday, possibly as traders took profits following the strong rise in wheat prices, while the market also began to pay more attention to wheat availability as the Northern Hemisphere harvest progresses. The market remains supported by uncertainty surrounding Black Sea exports, meaning Wednesday's decline appears to be more of a short-term correction than a change in the broader market outlook.
